A Summer Night with Greenmarket Chefs

New York, NY— On Friday, June 6, from 4-8 pm, Grow NYC's Union Square Greenmarket will celebrate the start of the season with A Summer Night with Greenmarket Chefs. In partnership with Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer and the Union Square Partnership, this special evening will highlight the release of GrowNYC's The New Greenmarket Cookbook out at the end of May from Perseus Books. The book's author, Gabrielle Langholtz, editor of Edible Manhattan will be on hand to sign copies of the book from 5-7 pm. Visitors will enjoy the rare chance to shop at a nighttime farmers market, while eating seasonally inspired dishes sold by eleven neighborhood restaurants, and sip on beer, wine and hard cider in a special beer garden on the north end of Union Square. Music provided by The Jazz Foundation and pioneering Latin jazz percussionist, Ray Mantilla, along with family activities, makes the second annual Union Square Summer Night Market a not to miss event for New Yorkers of all ages.
