

Organization Information

GrowNYC is a 50-year-old environmental nonprofit organization - helping more than 3 million New Yorkers by providing essential services and taking action to make NYC a livable city, one where every person can enjoy a healthier, more sustainable life. In particular, our network of Greenmarkets, Farmstands, Fresh Food Box sites, and GrowNYC Wholesale ensures that all New Yorkers have access to the freshest, healthiest local food.

About Farmstand

GrowNYC Farmstands are part of a network of food access retail sites operated by GrowNYC, along with Greenmarkets and Fresh Food Box sites. Through Farmstands, GrowNYC trains and employs young people to sell fresh, affordable food in neighborhoods throughout the Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, and Queens. The food sold at Farmstands is grown by farmers in the Northeast and transparently sourced through GrowNYC Wholesale.

Seasonal Farmstand Site Manager

The Farmstand Site Manager will oversee the operations of Farmstands throughout New York City, including supervising and training all Farmstand staff and youth staff. The Farmstand Site Manager position is seasonal and it could be part-time or full-time. Some positions require driving.

In addition to the field work, our youth staff attend paid, virtual, weekly workshops on a variety of topics led by experts at GrowNYC and some outside community partners, covering personal finance, our food system, agriculture in our region, food justice, countermarketing, food rescue, addressing food insecurity, compost, building a professional resume and cover letter. Farmstand Managers are expected to attend and help facilitate some discussion topics during these workshops.

Responsibilities (include, but are not limited to)

- Set up and break down site, carrying equipment and cases/bags of produce weighing up to 50lbs, folding tables and tents, and performing other physical labor
- Supervise daily market operations— product display, merchandising, sales, customer service, inventorying and site clean up according to schedule
- Supervise all Farmstand staff and youth staff at the market, guiding them as they gain experience in customer service and merchandising and educating them about produce and the program's mission
- Attend weekly meetings and complete administrative work remotely and at GrowNYC office when it reopens
- Perform debit/credit, cash, EBT and other nutrition benefit transactions and maintain accurate records
- Educate customers on a variety of food access and incentive programs.

Applications

Apply for the Seasonal Farmstand Site Manager part-time or full-time position with a resume and cover letter at <https://bit.ly/3fKYaiq>.

Interviews will take place during the month of May, and hiring will occur at the beginning of June. Training begins in mid-June, and all seasonal Farmstands will open at the beginning of July. Hours will ramp up to the regular full or part-time schedules during this time.
