

Self-Guided Tour

Thank you for visiting one of our 50+ Greenmarket farmers market locations. Greenmarket Youth Education is devoted to teaching K-12 students about the benefits of eating local, seasonal, and healthy food during our interactive guide-led program, School Tours at the Greenmarket. If you would like to learn more about education programs offered by GrowNYC, please visit www.grownyc.org/education.

Check in with the market manager at the Market Information tent when you arrive. She/he can provide you and your students with a great deal of information about the market and our farmers, as well as give you tips on how to best spend your time at their market!

Market rules to keep the market running smoothly and our farmers happy:

1. Provide ample supervision for your students, especially if they are young. We recommend 1 adult per every 5 students. The market can be very busy and we don't want anyone to get lost or injured.
2. Be mindful of the farmers' ability to sell their goods. It is fine to visit the stands and even ask them questions, but do not block the stands from shoppers trying to get in or speak to the farmers when they are busy helping other customers.
3. Please remind your students not to touch any items or take samples at farm stands unless they ask the farmer's permission. Many of their products are fragile and can get damaged or bruised easily.

For over 35 years GrowNYC's Greenmarket staff, volunteers and farmers have been working together to promote regional agriculture, preserve farmland and ensure a continuing supply of fresh, local produce for all New Yorkers.

As a non-profit, donations from supporters like you are vital to our continued success.
