

Stop 'N' Swap® Code of Conduct

For everyone's safety and enjoyment, we ask all swappers to abide by the following code of conduct.

1. Bring items you wish to give away* to the Sorting Area (this area is for drop-off only). Participants are not allowed to select items from the sorting area.
2. Items may only be selected from the Swap Area. If you see something you can use in the Swap Area, feel free to take it, but please also leave plenty for others.
3. Do not leave personal items unattended. GrowNYC is not responsible for theft, loss or damage.
4. Treat all patrons, volunteers and staff with respect. No profane language or other forms of disruptive or disrespectful behavior.
5. Commercial activity including advertising and distribution of promotional goods is strictly prohibited.
6. Participants may attend only six (6) Swaps events per calendar year, to ensure equitable access to goods. Participants must sign in with their real name. Stop 'N' Swap staff reserve the right to ask for proof of identity.

GROWNYC RESERVES THE RIGHT TO RESTRICT ACCESS TO PATRONS WHO VIOLATE THE CODE OF CONDUCT OR FAIL TO FOLLOW STAFF'S DIRECTION.

Thank you for your courtesy!

*Please note the following items are not accepted:

- Oversized items
- Furniture
- Hazardous and flammable items
- Used makeup
- Fabric scraps
- Unsealed liquids or aerosols
- Unsealed or expired food
- Knives or sharp objects
- Medicine
- Expired or recalled children's products